Fall 2017 WISE - Typography and Communication by the University of Illinois (2 credit hours): This course will explore the importance of typography --the physical medium that transmits the message-- in the history of communication. Students will learn how to identify various typefaces and discover how design, hierarchy, and emphasis can impact communication. Students will not only learn the history of typography, but also develop skill in composing a page of text and understanding the classical principles of layout. This course will begin with a typographic foundation based on type classifications, terminology, and a brief history of writing and printing technology. Students will work through a series of exercises with digital software and various texts in order to provide hands-on experience with typography and to understand its central, yet subtle role in shaping all written communication.

Fall 2017 WISE - Library Grant Writing by Syracuse University (1 credit hours): Funding projects through grants and planned giving has become essential to the growth of non-profits, including libraries. Increasingly staff members are called upon to demonstrate fund development skills, locate funding sources, and prepare grant proposals. Participants will focus on resources for finding funders, preparing standard and government grant requests, and initiating other fund development activities. There will be ample opportunity to exchange information and translate ideas into effective proposals.
