This is a blended class that meets as scheduled in person with additional reading and assignments delivered online. Online sessions and face-to-face sessions will be outlined on the first day of class.
This is a collection of course details for various courses, including restrictions, enrollment requirements, and contact information for further assistance. Each course entry includes the course number, name, instructor's name, and a description of the course restrictions and enrollment procedures. The courses are from the departments of Education and Computer Science, and they are offered through web-based instruction. The courses are restricted to students residing out-of-state, and enrollment requires approval or permission as stated in the course descriptions. Contact information is provided for additional assistance or inquiries.
