Applying for Degree Conferral (Graduation)

When to Apply for Conferral

Read through these self-check steps to ensure you are ready to apply for degree conferral:

- Login to myUNT. Choose the Academic Records icon. Choose Apply for Graduation and verify that your academic program/plan information accurately reflects your major(s) / minor(s) / or certification programs.

- Check your online degree audit at mydegreeaudit.unt.edu
  Are you in good academic standing with UNT (minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA)? Or will you be by the end of the semester?

- For undergraduate students: If your audit states “All requirements satisfied—in progress courses used” (see picture below), then you are eligible to apply for degree conferral. If it does not state “all requirements satisfied”, and you believe you are currently enrolled in all remaining requirements to complete your degree, make an appointment with your advising office.
See your college advising office before applying for degree conferral if:

- You have transfer work that is not yet included in your UNT student record.
- You are enrolled in or plan to enroll in classes at another institution to meet your degree requirements.
- You believe you are eligible to apply for degree conferral but do not see the option available to you in myUNT portal.

If you have completed a legal name change, please update the primary legal name on your UNT record. For further instructions and options for your Diploma Name please go to Update Your Personal Information: https://registrar.unt.edu/transcripts-and-records/update-your-personal-information
3. Select Mailing Address for Diploma to verify/update your address. Remember, your “mailing” address (not current or permanent), is the address that will be used to communicate important graduation/commencement updates (pre-graduation), as well as to send your diploma (6-8 weeks after graduation)*.

*If you need only your diploma mailed to a different address, then please update your “mailing” address (not current or permanent) in myUNT during the last week of the semester so that we have the updated information in time for the diploma order to be placed.
