In addition to completing the course requirements, students must:

1. Acquire Arab and Islamic worlds experience via one or more of the following:
   - Study abroad in an Arab or Islamic country
   - Internship in an area related to the Arab and Islamic worlds
   - Volunteer service in projects related to the Arab and Islamic worlds
2. Participate in five international events or activities on campus or in the DFW community related to Arab and Islamic affairs. Include documentation of participating in these activities along with a summary report.

Students are strongly encouraged to achieve Arabic language proficiency through the level of LANG 1020 by completing course work or through examination.

Please consult with the certificate advisor as some courses may have prerequisites. You may also see the current Undergraduate Catalog for course descriptions and prerequisite information. Course availability at UNT is subject to change, and the plan shown below may change based on updates to UNT’s course offerings. Transfer courses are not applicable to undergraduate academic certificates.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term 1</th>
<th>Term 2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>One course from the Culture and Art, History, or Politics lists below</td>
<td>One course from the Culture and Art, History, or Politics lists below</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term 3</th>
<th>Term 4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>One course from the Culture and Art, History, or Politics lists below</td>
<td>One course from the Culture and Art, History, or Politics lists below</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Culture and Art:
  - ARTH 4805
  - ARTH 4824
  - ARTH 4825
  - ANTH 3500
  - MRTS 4415

- History:
  - HIST 3450
  - HIST 3460
  - HIST 4240
  - HIST 4245
  - HIST 4246
  - HIST 4283

- Politics:
  - PSCI 3650
  - INST 4850 (when taught as “Women in the Middle East,” “Political Economy and Governments of the Middle East,” or “International Relations of the Middle East”)