Library Program Development with Learning Sciences: Learning Sciences is an interdisciplinary field that works to further understanding of learning across settings, in both formal and informal environments. Students will explore theories of human development and learning, current research into the learning lives of people in a variety of situations, and methods of improving services through design-based implementation research. By the end of this course, students will be able to identify and apply effective tools and practices to support learners of all ages in pursuing their goals via library programs and services.

Searching for Evidence in Health Information: Learn about evidence-based practice and how you can integrate it into your work as an information professional. The course will introduce you to strategies for finding and critically appraising research publications to use as evidence to support decision-making. Applications of evidence-based practice will be covered, such as health, business, education, and librarianship. Students will apply evidence-based practice principles to a real-world question.
