College of Arts & Sciences
B.A. Political Science
2010-2011 Texas Common Course Numbering System Transfer Guide

- Entering students interested in majoring in Political Science will be classified as pre-majors. Admission to the university does not guarantee admission to the Political Science major. To be admitted to major status, a pre-major must meet the requirements listed in "Admission to the Major" on page two.

- The College of Arts and Sciences expects students to have completed the Texas State recommended high school program and be ready to enroll in Language 2040 (TCCNS: Language 2311) or a mathematics course above college algebra. If you are not prepared for this level, the necessary prerequisites will either replace electives or increase the hours required for this degree.

College of Arts & Sciences Core: Foreign Language

Any foreign language 2311 and 2312.

This also satisfies the university core Understanding the Human Community Requirement.

Latin courses (2311 and 2312) can be used to satisfy this requirement, but will not satisfy the university core Understanding the Human Community requirement. Courses must be taken in the same language.

NOTE: Prerequisites for foreign language 2311 and 2312 courses are 1311 and 1312 or 1411 and 1412 or 1511 and 1512. Placement exams may be available; see your community college academic advisor for details.

Political Science: Admission to the Major

All students entering UNT and wishing to pursue the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in political science must first enter as pre-majors. Before applying for political major status, pre-majors must complete at least 24 hours of college course work including two courses chosen from one of the following combinations, with a 2.5 GPA in these two courses:

- GOVT 2301 and 2302
- GOVT 2305 and 2306

Pre-majors who have completed the above requirements and who have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.5 (UNT and transfer credit) may file a formal application for major status.

Political Science Major Requirements

Political science majors must complete 30 hours in political science: Two courses as listed above in "Admission to the Major", PSCI 2300 at UNT, any political theory course and 18 other hours, including at least one advanced course in each of three of the listed areas of study: American Government and Politics, Public Law, Political Theory and Methodology, Comparative Government and Politics, International Relations.

Academic requirements for graduation with a BA degree in political science: A student must have a minimum of 2.5 grade point average in all work attempted, including transfer, correspondence, extension and residence work in all courses, and in all courses counting toward the political science major.

Special Notes

Hours Required and General/College Requirements:
A minimum of 120 semester hours, of which 42 must be advanced, and fulfillment of degree requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree as specified in the "General University Requirements" in the Academics section of the UNT catalog and the College of Arts and Sciences requirements.

UNT Core Curriculum: Complies with the mandates of the 1997 Texas Legislature regarding requirements for state-assisted institutions. Individual academic programs may require courses contained in parts of the University Core Curriculum. Students who wish to take courses that will fulfill both core and major/program requirements simultaneously should check with academic advisors for assistance in selecting core courses.

Choice of Catalog: Any student transferring directly from a Texas public community college to UNT shall have the same choice of catalog designating degree requirements as the student would have had if the dates of attendance at the university had been the same as the dates of attendance at the community college

The College of Arts and Sciences required curriculum and policies are located in the Undergraduate Catalog 2010-2011.
