B.S. Human Development & Family Science

Teacher Certification

2023-2024 Texas Common Course Numbering System Transfer Guide

Human Development & Family Science: Program Requirements

Admission to Teacher Education Program:

Prior to enrolling in the education courses, students must:

- be a junior (60 credit hours earned)
- have a 2.75 GPA in the core
- have a 2.75 overall GPA (includes courses transferred to UNT, plus all courses taken at UNT)
- have appropriate exam scores on either the SAT, ACT or Praxis Core: Academic Skills for Educators
- be actively enrolled at UNT and have a degree plan completed or in process in the Student Advising Office
- have completed the application process and been admitted to Teacher Education through the College of Education Student Advising Office in Matthews Hall, Room 105

Continuation in the Teacher Education Program is not guaranteed by the admission process.

Eligibility for Teacher Certification and Endorsements: Teacher certification is a function of the State Board for Educator Certification. Completion of the bachelor's degree and the required education courses does not necessarily result in certification by the agency. In order to receive recommendation for teacher certification through the University of North Texas, students must have:

- Fulfilled all requirements of an approved 120-hour degree plan
- Received a grade of C or better for each major course
- Obtained a 2.75 GPA in each of the following areas: each teaching field, all education courses, all UNT work, and overall (including transferred courses)
- Successfully completed student teaching, including attendance at appropriate seminars and passing a comprehensive teacher preparation examination
- Passed the content examination from the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences and the appropriate sections of the Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES)

Students completing course requirements for the Human Development and Family Science teacher certificate will be eligible to apply to the National Council of Family Relations for the Certified Family Life Educator credential.

Students completing course requirements for the Family and Consumer Sciences teacher certificate will be eligible to apply to the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences for the Certified Family and Consumer Sciences credential.

Special Notes

Hours Required and General/College Requirements:

- A minimum of 120 semester hours, of which 42 must be advanced, and fulfillment of degree requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree as specified in the general university requirements section of the UNT catalog and the College of Education requirements.
- Core requirements include one 3-hour unpaid internship (HDFS 4023) related to the student's selected emphasis area. Students must complete a minimum of 150 clock hours to meet this requirement. Some students may be required to complete a second internship. Students should have senior status and have completed HDFS 4011 before beginning an internship. Liability insurance is required for all internship students. Permission to enroll in an internship and approval of the internship site are required.
- A minimum GPA of 2.50 in the major and a minimum grade of C in each course in the major are required. A minimum UNT GPA of 2.0, and a minimum overall GPA of 2.0 are also required for graduation. (Overall GPA includes all course work transferred plus that taken at UNT.)

UNT Core Curriculum/Transfer of Core Curriculum: UNT complies with the mandate of the Texas Legislature regarding Core Requirements for state-assisted institutions. Students who successfully complete the common core curriculum (in whole or in part) at a Texas state-assisted institution of higher education are eligible to transfer as "core complete" for those categories in the UNT University Core Curriculum.

Individual academic programs may require courses contained in parts of the University Core Curriculum. Students who wish to take courses that will fulfill both core and major/program requirements simultaneously should check with academic advisors for assistance in selecting core courses.

Choice of Catalog: Any student transferring directly from a Texas public community college to UNT shall have the same choice of catalog designating degree requirements as the student would have had if the dates of attendance at the university had been the same as the dates of attendance at the community college.

The College of Education required curriculum and policies are located in the Undergraduate Catalog.
