Certain degree requirements must be completed to apply for the Converged Broadcast Media (CBCM) major and to take upper-level MRTS courses. Transfer students should review the Converged Broadcast Media: Major Requirements section for guidelines on acceptance to the major.

Community College RTVB and FLMC courses do not apply towards a B.A. in Converged Broadcast Media.

Only 12 hours of MRTS courses taken at other institutions may be applied toward the major.

Students majoring in Converged Broadcast Media are required to have a minimum grade of 'C' in all MRTS courses to count toward the major. Students may have only two attempts for a grade of 'C' or better for each required MRTS course.

- Converged Broadcast Media majors must maintain a UNT GPA of 2.75. Converged Broadcast Media major students whose GPAs fall below 2.75 cannot enroll in any Media Arts classes until they return their UNT GPA to 2.75 or higher.

Students may register for only one section of a course at a time. Students registered for more than one section of a course will be dropped from all sections of that course without notice. The policy does not apply to courses such as special topics, which may bear the same course number but are different topics and are therefore different courses.

Specific competency and departmental approval for internship, seminar and special problem courses are required.

Special Notes

Hours Required and General/College Requirements: A minimum of 120 semester hours, of which 42 must be advanced, and fulfillment of degree requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree as specified in the General University Requirements section of the UNT catalog and the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences requirements.
